

White foxtail, feathertop - Pennisetum villosum

Form: Perennial tufted grass 30-60cm tall

Leaves: Erect, slender, flat or folded, tapering.

Flowers: Summer. Conspicuous fluffy white heads above leaves.

Fruits: Summer and autumn. Minute, spread by vehicles and soil.

Impacts: Slight unless dense. Conspicuous exotic.

Control: Dig out, collecting flowers and seed heads for disposal. Spot spray.

Ongoing management: Check area each spring. Dig out or spot spray plants at first and subsequent flowering.

Copyright Image supplied by RG & FJ Richardson

Copyright Image supplied by RG & FJ Richardson